Spartans Open Basketball Season

Local Team To Meet National Guard Quartet Tonight In Inaugural Game; Starting Time Set For 8 p.m. In Gym

Many Varsity Hoopsters Unfamiliar To San Jose State Casaba Fans

Basketball will be inaugurated tonight on the Spartan hardwood when the 1947-48 CCAA champs tipoff in an 8 o'clock encounter with the National Guard team of San Francisco.

The Spartans, who rolled over 23 opponents last season, and compiled a perfect conference record, will be commencing a 34-game schedule. In addition to tonight's tilt, the locals will play five more bay area games before leaving on their pre-Christmas Utah invasion.

Thursday night will find McPherson's cagers in San Francisco for a contest with the University of San Francisco at Kezar, and on Saturday night, the YMI quintet from the Bay city will move onto the Spartan court.

Strong Opposition

No starting lineup for the visitors has been announced, but their roster includes 11 men, all of whom are experienced college or club performers. At forwards are Elwood Britt, Florida A&M; Em Chapman, 20th Century Fox; Ken Leslie, Borlo A.C.; Steve Shutt, California, and Jack Tweedie, Occidental.

Ed Conroy, Borlo A.C.; Ernie Fillbert, Borlo A.C.; Pete Mandler, Santa Clara, and Al White, Marin J.C. constitute the guards, with Jim Smith, California, and Tom Amherby, Oakland Bitters, holding down the center positions.

Coach Walt McPherson has nominated Bob Crowe and Don McCaslin to start at forwards, and Bob Wuesthoff and Ralph Romero at guards. Stu Inman, center, will round out this first unit.

First Game

Because this will be the first game of the season, many of the varsity hoopsters are unfamiliar to San Jose State college students.

Card Playing Ban Will Continue

The ban on card playing in the Student Union is in force, and will continue to be effective until after the regular meeting of the Union board tomorrow night. At the meeting of the Student Council last Monday, the Council passed a motion recommending that the board permit card playing in at least a part of the lounge.

The Student Union board is an autonomous board under the present constitutional set-up, and as such is not subject to by-laws of the constitution, according to Tom Wall, student body president. It is for this reason that the petition circulated by a group of card players was not presented to the Council calling for a general vote of the Associated Students.

At its meeting tomorrow night, the board will decide whether or not to act on the recommendation of the Student Council.

Experienced Actors Cast In Production 'Christopher Bean'

By GEORGE STRATTON

Bette Rehorst and Jackson Young are two of the more experienced actors appearing in "The Late Christopher Bean," which opens Thursday night in the Little Theater for a six-day run.

Miss Rehorst, a junior speech and drama major from Palo Alto, will take the part of Mrs. Haggett. She has done the part previously, in a Palo Alto high school production of the Sidney Howard comedy.

Mr. Young appears in the role of an elderly and distinguished art critic. He is well known to Little Theater audiences for his many past performances. His latest being that of Edgar in "King Lear."

Both Miss Rehorst and Mr. Young have appeared in many Little Theater productions.

Tickets for the play are available in the Speech and Drama office, room 57, directly across from the Little Theater. Holders of student body cards will be admitted for 60 cents, and the general public for 90 cents.

Frosh Wins Bird At Coed-Rec Tues.

Edith Christiansen got the bird last Tuesday night, when she won the turkey door prize given away free during the social dance phase of All State Recreation Night.

The lucky ticket holder, a freshman general elementary major from Soledad, received the 12-pound featherless, headless fowl from the hands of "Doc" G. A. McCallum, after he had drawn her number from the box.

Nora Lynch, Coed-Rec chairman described the recreation night as a "marvelous success." She said that all events on the program were heavily attended with the exception of swimming. Only a dozen or so rugged Spartans were brave enough to enter the pool's damp depths. Approximately 150 students were instructed in the fine arts of folk dancing by the Spartan Spinners folk dancers. Volleyball and badminton courts were constantly in use from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., according to Miss Lynch.

The heaviest attendance was found at the off-the-record dance where an estimated 500 to 600 persons swayed and jitterbugged to some of the nation's foremost bands ever to be captured in wax. A more than ample supply of coffee, soft drinks, and cake was on hand to provide renewed energy for Recreation Night participants.

By-law Discussions Top Student Council Meeting For Today

Discussion regarding the holding of an ASB election to bring forward contemplated changes in the constitution will be discussed by the Student Council at its meeting in the Student Union at 4:30 this afternoon.

Plans call for an election sometime in the winter quarter on an amendment calling for and passing no ex post facto laws and the succession of the ASB presidency.

Appointment of a junior justice is expected at this meeting, explained Tom Wall, ASB president.

Discussion regarding the coming freshman elections, and a report on violations in the use of ASB cards at the San Jose-St. Mary's game is expected at the meeting, said Wall.

By-laws on the destroying of campus ads and covering concessions at college affairs will be debated by the Council.

Tryouts Set Today, Announces Baird

Tryouts for drum major and majorette will be held on the San Carlos turf at 12:30 p.m. today, according to Forrest J. Baird, band director. Music majors are desired for the position of drum major, but any girl is eligible for the majorette job, Baird said.

Girls should wear costumes or slacks to allow maximum freedom of movement, the director added.

Union's Supervisor Appointed; Livesay Will Fill Position

Mr. J. P. Livesay has been appointed supervisor of the Student Union, according to Dean Helen Dimmick, chairman of the Student Union board.

Mr. Livesay has been active for several years in the field of educational promotion throughout the country, but more recently has been connected with the State Department of Employment in San Jose.

Appointment of a Student Union supervisor has been pending since spring quarter. The appointment was not made, Dean Dimmick said, because no one with the right qualifications could be found.

"We feel we have the right man now," Dean Dimmick said.

Search Began With Dimmick Request for a Student Union supervisor who would keep the Union in a more orderly fashion originated with the students, Dean Dimmick explained. Various service organizations had at one time assumed the duty, but because of the growing student body, felt that they could no longer handle the situation, she said.

"The Student Council allocated funds for this purpose during spring quarter, and asked the Student Union board to make the appointment," Dean Dimmick said. "The board, which is a sub-committee of the Student Council, then acted upon the request initiated by the students."

Mr. Livesay is originally from San Jose.

14,000 See San Jose Lose Heartbreaker In Final Minutes After Dominating Game For Almost Three Quarters

Fumbles Set Up St. Mary's Scores; Schemmel Tallies Twice For San Jose

By CARL UNDERWOOD

After having the game all but in the bag, San Jose State blew sky high and fumbled it away to the Galloping Gaels from St. Mary's 19-14 Friday night on the Spartan turf before 14,000 frozen, excited fans.

It was a wild, thrill packed contest, and just as they did against Stanford, the Spartans apparently had a victory in their grasp, but folded under pressure. The alert Gaels were quick to take advantage of three disastrous San Jos boots, scoring each time to ruin the Spartans' Homecoming and final home game.

For almost three quarters the Golden Raiders outplayed the favored Moragamen, and broke up a 7-7 halftime ball game when halfback Bill Schemmel scooted one yard around right end to score his second touchdown. Fred "Bulldog" Lindsey converted the Spartans into a 14-7 lead with five minutes remaining in the third quarter.

The turning point of the bruising battle came early in the final period when Spartan fullback Pete Denevi intercepted a Dick Jarvis pass, but tossed the ball away on an attempted lateral. Gael end Dick Lamp recovered.

In five plays St. Mary's had six points as fullback Dave Haffner plunged over from the one after a 42 yard drive. Lou Bradvica's conversion attempt was wide, however, and the Spartans still led 14-13 with 11 minutes remaining.

Gaels Clinch Game Late These final hectic minutes saw a series of weird plays in which St. Mary's recovered Schemmel's fumble on the 10, San Jose held brilliantly for downs on the nine, and immediately booted the ball away on the 10. This time St. Mary's was not to be stopped, and in two plays Jarvis flipped a pass down the middle from the nine to Lamp who dived over the goal for the deciding score.

Schemmel kept the flickering flame of victory alive for the Spartans when he took the kick-off and raced back from his end zone to San Jose's 40, but when fullback Jack Donaldson just missed a pass from Chuck Hughes (who quarterbacked a great game), the Spartans' final chance faded away into the cold night.

The Gaels then drove through San Jose's line practically at will for the first time, and were on the Spartan 12 when the final gun sounded. Their statistical edge of 15 first downs to nine, and 286 combined yards to 167 came mainly as the result of this march.

First Blood

St. Mary's drew first blood when Bob Haffner roared over tackle to score from the San Jose four, which climaxed a 20 yard drive after the first costly Spartan fumble by Fred Mangini.

An earlier drive by the local eleven had fizzled, and following the Gael tally, another fumble by Harry Russell stymied them once again on the 19. Hughes then engineered a 47 yard march culminating in Schemmel's run around right end from the Gael 20 for a TD.

Late in the third quarter Russell intercepted a Jarvis jump pass on the St. Mary's 28, but after Donaldson plowed to a first down on the three the Gael line stiffened. On the fourth down, however, Schemmel again skirted right end for the score.

HEAR FROM THERE

By JACK GOLDEN

Every once in awhile we find non-collegiate publications in our basket. These stowaways include political papers, labor and management weeklies, and religious periodicals.

The red headlines of one rag caught our bleary eyes; the paper was the National Voice—publication of the Alcohol Abhorring forces. We focussed our attention to an article presenting after-election statements of Dry Leaders, some of which were indeed interesting.

Bob S. says, "We are up against the fact that a terrible moral disintegration is taking place in America. Men are being controlled by their desires, by greed, by avarice and other forces that mean the annihilation of the best there is in personality. We must never lay down our arms because of the evil tides that are flowing." (He must be thinking of tap beer.)

Dr. Titus A. F. says, "We are not permanently defeated, nor are we temporarily depressed. This is one battle in a long range war in which the people who love sobriety, integrity, and righteousness, are aligned against those who prefer drunkenness, graft, crime and corruption. In the end, right must prevail." (Yeh, it must, but will it?)

"Oh, mamma, we had the nicest Sunday School song — all about Gladly."

"Why, who was Gladly?"

"You know, the cross-eyed bear. We sang all about him."

It took the scandalized mother a few minutes to remember the song, "Gladly The Cross I'd Bear."

SJS FAIRNESS COMMITTEE OUTLINES PLAN FOR CONTROL OF CRIBBING

By JACQUE WOLFF

Recommendations set forth in the Faculty Manual by the Fairness committee last quarter, special reference was made to precautionary measures to be taken during examinations. The preliminary plans and safeguards include the use of proctors in classes containing more than 50 students. Instructors, secretaries, and graduate students may assist as proctors. An alternate plan suggested by the committee, concerns two instructors giving examinations at the same hour, in each room half of each class may occupy alternate seats.

The committee on fairness warns instructors that precautions should be observed in the mimeographing, stapling, and storing of examination questions, and with respect to students who have access to the office where papers are stored.

In questioning student behavior, the committee recommends a good-natured but firm reminder to students that may check cheating. Unsupported accusations can lead to legal difficulties. Accusations should be made with caution, and distracting scenes during an examination avoided, state the committee's recommendations.

Instructor Must Decide

The group feels in the administration of penalties for cheating the instructor should take into account the degree to which cheating was impulsive and unpremeditated. He should determine the degree to which the student deliberately planned in advance to cheat; and the degree to which there was a conspiracy of two or more students to cheat.

If a student protests the instructor's decision about a case of suspected cheating, he should ask the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women for an investigation.

All cases of cheating, both those merely suspected and those with convincing evidence, should be reported to the Dean of Men or Dean of Women.

THRUST and PARRY

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the band for its fine spirit of cooperation and willingness to work this quarter. We wouldn't have accomplished nearly what we did if it hadn't been for the band's earnest efforts. I am sure those of you that know marching and those of you that know quality band music will agree we were NOT out-marched, out-performed, or out-played. Perhaps next year, the belated new equipment and uniforms will make you prouder than ever to perform.

Also I want to thank those representatives of the band — the band council for their generous cooperation in publicity, and others who set up yard markers and the many little tasks that needed to be accomplished.

To our majorettes, Paulene Deardorff and Dodie Arnold, I wish to say a heartfelt "thanks" for putting on such a fine show, for supplying your uniforms and batons and for being so resourceful as to work out your own classy routines. You both are a real credit to our school.

To Mr. Forrest Baird, the director, I wish to express my sincere thanks for the hours devoted to planning, for the many, many useful suggestions and for a co-operative spirit and an attitude of great understanding.

Those of you that will return next fall, I wish you good luck and best wishes for an even more active and fun-packed season.

Dear Thrust and Parry:

An open letter to one Ron La Mar:

According to your statement in today's Daily, Delta Sigma, a national fraternity, has been trying to pose as an on-campus organization by using the name "Delta," which you claim to be "synonymous with Delta Sigma Gamma." Delta Sigma Gamma has always been known at the DSG's. It may interest you to know that Delta Sigma was founded in 1887, while Delta Sigma Gamma was organized as an on-campus frat in 1939. My question to you is this, Mr. La Mar: "Who is trying to pose as who here?"

Newcomer To Faculty Taught At Hawaii U., Helped Build Friant Dam

By MADELEINE OLIVER

"Students at the University of Hawaii are more cosmopolitan than those at San Jose State, because of the mixed racial groups," stated Norman O. Gunderson, assistant professor of engineering, in a recent interview. Mr. Gunderson began teaching at San Jose this quarter. He came from the University of Hawaii, where he taught during 1947 and 1948. "Except for the cosmopolitan air, and the fact that a large percentage of the students are oriental, they are basically the same as those attending San Jose," he added.

When asked if he found the housing situation acute, the soft-spoken, red-haired professor said he had been very lucky. It seems that the engineering department secretary left just after he arrived, and he got her apartment, situated just across the street from the campus.

"The apartment seems quite palatial compared to the one my wife and I had in Honolulu. There, we lived in converted Army barracks that had been turned into faculty housing," he said.

Hails From Wyoming

Mr. Gunderson is a native of Laramie, Wyo. He received his B.S. from the University of Wyoming in 1939 and his M.A. in 1947. After obtaining his B.S., he worked for the Soil Conservation service from 1940 to 1941. He switched to the Bureau of Reclamation in Central Valley in 1941. There he worked on the construction of Friant Dam near Fresno, until Pearl Harbor.

The war turned Mr. Gunderson from his chosen profession, and it was a detour that lasted five years. "Probably the least notable years in my life," he asserted.

He joined the Army in 1941 and was assigned to the infantry; spent one year in the Pacific, and one year in Europe. Although he claims to have accomplished "nothing special" in those years, he did manage to work his way from the rank of second lieutenant to major by the time he received his discharge. He was among a group of infantry officers who trained troops in France on the techniques of Japanese warfare, after the European war was over.

NORMAN O. GUNDERSON

Woodworking and movie photography claim the professor's spare time. While teaching at the University of Hawaii, he took over 1000 feet of color movies, including pictures of Wakiki and Diamond Head, which he says, "everyone takes."

Now that Thanksgiving day has passed,
We hope you're filled with cheer
Of all that's good, and don't forget,
To bring your laundry here.

'Soap For Overseas' Drive By Student Y Will Begin Today

"Soap for Overseas" is the slogan of the drive being held now by the Student "Y" to collect soap scraps and bars of soap to alleviate the present distressing conditions in Europe.

The drive is being conducted for two weeks until Dec. 10, and all living groups have been asked to set up containers for collecting used soap, said Helen Davis, chairman of the drive. Campus service organizations are also being asked to help by contributing bars of soap.

The contributions will be collected at the end of the two-week period and turned in at the San Jose Red Cross headquarters. The Student "Y" committee is assisting the Red Cross and the American Friends Service committee in their present drive.

Soap Scraps Collected

In San Jose and San Francisco, hotels are collecting soap scraps from their guest rooms, and community groups all over the state have begun to respond to the call for soap.

Contributions should be in bars rather than powders because of shipping difficulties. The soap ends are reprocessed before being sent overseas.

In pointing up the present great need of soap, the committee said that in the hospitals of central Europe now, nurses are being admonished not to wash their hands more than twice a day because of the critical shortage of soap. Children are developing skin diseases because of the lack of soap for proper bathing and washing.

Xmas Musical Program Planned

A special Christmas musical program will be presented by the college Music department in the Morris Dailey auditorium Dec. 5 at 3:30 p.m., Dr. Lyle W. Downey, department head, announced yesterday.

"The program will consist of two famous compositions relating to the Christmas season, one in the vocal field and the other in the instrumental field," Dr. Downey said.

Vocal soloists and a choral ensemble will be featured in the Christmas Oratorio of Saint Saens. They will be accompanied by the college string orchestra with harp and organ, directed by Dr. Downey.

Harpist will be Lydia Boothby. For the first time at San Jose State college, a Connors Electronic organ will be used. The organ, loaned to the college by the Ferguson music store, will be played by Richard Jenson.

Corelli's Christmas Concerto, Op. 6, No. 8, will feature instrumental soloists, accompanied by the string orchestra and organ.

Police Fraternity Accepts Pledges

Chi Pi Sigma, police fraternity, has accepted as pledges 11 men who will wear pledge stars all this week around campus, according to official reports.

The men are Michael Barchi, Joseph De Soto, Lelan Jamison, John Larson, Gerald Myers, Pat Parkes, Melvin Riley, Bob Schatz, Ernst Selig, Kenneth Stagg, and Muri Tullis.

Frosh To Nominate Officers Tomorrow

Freshmen will have a chance to nominate candidates for class offices tomorrow in Freshman Orientation, according to Mr. Don Sevens, class adviser.

The nominations will be held from 11:30 to 12:30 in Morris Dailey auditorium, Mr. Sevens said. Officers to be nominated are president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer.

To be eligible for any class office, Mr. Sevens said that the candidate must be on clear standing, cannot have completed over 45 quarter units of study, and must be a member of the Associated Student Body.

"Any freshman," according to Mr. Sevens, "who meets these requirements may run for any one of the freshman offices."

To be nominated for the office sought, Mr. Sevens said the prospective candidate must be present at the nomination assembly tomorrow. If he has classes that conflict with the assembly, Mr. Sevens said that he should obtain an excuse from his class by seeing either Dean Pitman or himself (Mr. Sevens).

Those who expect to run for office should be nominated by another member of the class and should have an acceptance speech of not more than one minute in duration prepared.

'Y' Plans Week-end Confab To Discuss Future Activities

Plans for the future activities of the Student Y, now numbering more than 400 members, are to be formulated in detail at the Over-night scheduled to be held Dec. 3, 4, and 5, it has been learned from Janet Anderson, associate executive secretary.

The three-day meeting of committee members and officers will be held at the Monte Toyon camp, near Aptos, Mrs. Anderson said.

"Present plans call for the creation of four discussion groups, which will take up various phases of the planning," she added.

Student leaders of the discussions will be Marie Herold, Sally Moody, and Lenore Staatz.

Students who are not at present members of the Student Y but who are interested in its future activities are invited to attend the event, Mrs. Anderson indicated.

Swim Club Looks For Show Theme

A theme will be selected for the coming "Swim Show" at the Swim club's weekly meeting tonight at 7:30, according to Miss Mary Hooton, faculty adviser.

The theme will be chosen from suggestions made by members. Among suggestions that have already come in are: "An Old-Fashioned Day," "School Days," "Travel," and "Circus."

Approximately 100 swimmers will be needed for the show which will be held during the spring quarter, Miss Hooton said. Swimming is held from 7-9 p.m. every Monday.

'51 Constitution Is Now In Effect

The Sophomore Council recently voted to accept the Class of '51 constitution and put it into effect as of its acceptance, announced President Dave Down.

Bob Madsen, author of the document, said that the six-article constitution will cover the Class of '51 through its junior and senior years, and not the sophomore class as such.

Duties and limitations of class officers and committee chairmen are cited in the constitution, and it will be the final authority on controversial matters before the class, said Madsen.

A straight line may be the shortest distance between two points, but some girls get there quicker with curves.

Report, Books Lost; Wrecked By Tram

Mr. Tom E. Leonard, instructor in aircraft engines, is minus a text book on electric theory, a report to the Civil Aeronautics, and one-half of a power plant manual, as a result of his ride on a San Francisco street car Sunday evening.

While getting off the street car at Van Ness and O'Farrell, Mr. Leonard dropped his books and papers on the street. The papers were scattered to the four winds but the books wound up under the street car wheels and were mutilated or cut nearly in half as was the fate of the power plant manual.

The report to the CAA constituted a request for the establishment of an accredited airplane mechanics' school at San Jose State college.

Year's First Concert To Be Held Soon; Will Feature Ryan

The first Music department concert of the school year will be presented in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 8:15 p.m., Dec. 7, according to Dr. Lyle W. Downey, department head.

San Jose State college's symphony orchestra, directed by Dr. Downey, will present the concert. Included in the program are Brahms' Symphony No. 4, Opus 98, and Beethoven's Concerto No. 5 for Piano and Orchestra.

Beethoven wrote the concerto in 1809, in the basement of his brother's Vienna home while Napoleon's cannon were bombarding the city walls.

It is usually known as the Emperor Concerto, supposedly from a chance remark made by a soldier in expression of his admiration for its nobility and beauty.

Piano soloist for the concerto will be Thomas Ryan, music faculty member. A resident of New York, Mr. Ryan is piano instructor here this year. He exchanged residences with Benning Dexter, faculty member on sabbatical leave to study at the Juilliard Graduate school in New York City.

Mr. Ryan, a graduate from the University of Kansas School of Music, studied at the famous Juilliard school two years. He has made many concert appearances, including a recent one in New York's Town hall.

'BIG SHOW' STARTS IN GYM WED.

By DAVE PARNAY

The "Biggest Show On Earth" will open in the Men's gym Wednesday night, Dec. 1. The above description of the novice boxing tournament is Dee Portal's, but the 3500 fans who jammed San Jose Civic auditorium for thrill-packed finals of last year's championships will back Dee up.

This will be the 12th annual tournament and Dee firmly believes that it will be the biggest, most exciting, and most colorful in the event's history.

Eleven teams, a new high, with over 60 boxers have signed up so far. If the number of boxers reaches 80, Dee may have to hold first quarter-final matches Tuesday.

Newman Favored

Pete Franzusich, Pacific Coast Intercollegiate light heavyweight champion, and manager of the Newman club, team champion last year, has again assembled an outfit that looks capable of winning the title.

Pete's boys will get plenty of competition from the SAE outfit managed by Wayne Fontes and Jim Nutt. Fontes and Nutt will have outstanding men in Dick Finnegan, former frosh football star, at 155 pounds, and Vic Viviano, who should give his 165-pound opponents plenty of trouble.

Managers Paul Farris and Dave Grey with their Delta Upsilon sponsored wrecking machine could be the tournament's dark horse. Farris and Grey have an excellent prospect in Ernie Esch at 165 pounds. Bill Small should be tough at 145 pounds, and wrestler Don Foster will have the Delta machine well fortified in the heavy-weight class.

Yolo Puncher

Headliner for Manager Charlie Townsend and his Theta Mu Sigma outfit should be Thelmo Knowles. Portal reports that Knowles is working on a "Yolo punch" and might have another trick or two up his sleeve.

Competition will be held in nine weight divisions from the 125-pound class to the heavyweight division. Awards will go not only to the winners and runners-up in each division, but to the man selected as the tournament's outstanding boxer, the winning team, and to the sponsoring organization with the loudest and most colorful rooting section.
